Title: Log into Account
Actor(s):   User
Purpose: Show successful Log in Attempt (required to complete purchase transactions)

Scenario 1

Pre Condition(s):   User has started application and is currently at the Main Menu Display
User already has an existing account, but not currently logged in

Procedure: Click login button
Enter username and password on login menu display
Click login button
Application confirms information provided and log in user
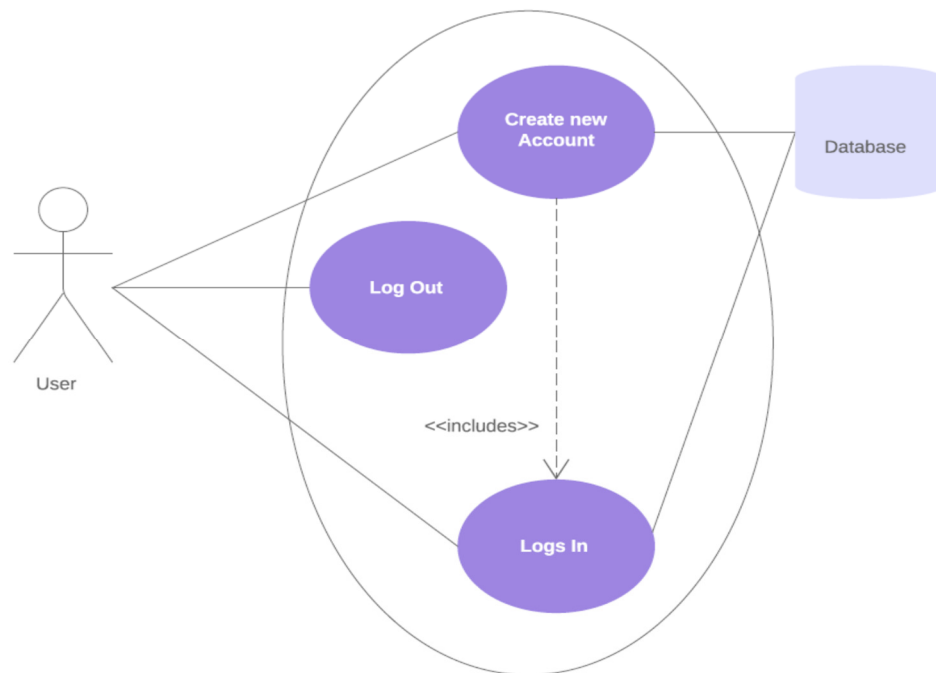

Post Condition(s):   User is logged in

Scenario 2

Pre Condition(s):   User has started application and is currently at the Main Menu Display
User doen't have an account and not currently logged in

Procedure: Create New Account button
Enter all fields on the Create New Account Display
Click Register button
Application confirms information provided
Application creates new user account and logs in user

Post Condition(s):   User has account
User is logged in

Title: Failed Attempt to Log into Account
Actor(s):   User
Purpose: Show Unsuccessful Log in Attempt (required to complete purchase transactions)

Scenario 1

Pre Condition(s):   User has started application and is currently at the Main Menu Display
                    User has an existing account, but not currently logged in

Procedure: Click login button
                        User enters username and password on login menu display
                        User clicks login button
                        Application compares user provided to information stored in database
                        Information does not match, user not logged in Application displays information dialog
                        Application Redisplays login
                    Repeat until user provides appropriate information or clicks Cancel button
                    User clicks Cancel button
Post Condition(s): User is not logged in

Scenario 2

Pre Condition(s):   User has started application and is currently at the Main Menu Display
                    User doen't have an account and not currently logged in

Procedure: Create New Account button
                        User omits some information on create account
                        User clicks Register button
                        Application displays information dialog rejecting account creation
                        Application Redisplays Create New Account
                    Repeat until user provides appropriate information or clicks Cancel button
                    User clicks Cancel button
Post Condition(s): User doesn't have account
                    User is not logged in